

SHIPPING, DELIVERY, EXCHANGE & WARRANTY POLICY

Effective Date: 1st of May, 2026

Welcome to Samay ("Company", "we", "our", or "us").

This Shipping, Delivery, Exchange & Warranty Policy ("Policy") governs the shipping, dispatch, delivery, exchange, and warranty-related terms applicable to products purchased through our website, online platforms, retail operations, communication channels, and authorized sales networks.

The purpose of this Policy is to provide transparency regarding order processing timelines, shipping procedures, delivery expectations, exchange eligibility, warranty-related practices, and customer responsibilities associated with purchases made from the Company.

By placing an order with the Company, customers ("Customer", "you", or "your") acknowledge that they have read, understood, and agreed to the terms outlined under this Policy.

1. ORDER PROCESSING & DISPATCH

All orders placed with the Company are subject to product availability, successful payment verification, operational review, and acceptance by the Company.

Orders are generally processed and prepared for dispatch within approximately 24 to 48 hours from the time of successful order confirmation or payment verification. Orders placed during weekends, public holidays, festive periods, promotional campaigns, or outside normal business hours may require additional processing time depending upon operational volume and logistical conditions.

The Company reserves the right to delay, hold, cancel, or refuse any order at its sole discretion in circumstances including but not limited to suspected fraudulent activity, incorrect pricing, payment verification failure, stock unavailability, operational errors, technical issues, incomplete customer information, or unforeseen circumstances affecting order fulfillment.

Customers acknowledge that order confirmation does not automatically constitute final acceptance of an order by the Company, and the Company reserves the right to undertake reasonable verification procedures before dispatch.

2. SHIPPING & DELIVERY TIMELINES

The Company undertakes commercially reasonable efforts to dispatch and deliver products within estimated timelines communicated at the time of purchase.

Estimated delivery timelines generally range between 3 to 7 business days from the date of dispatch depending upon delivery location, regional accessibility, courier network availability, operational conditions, and shipping partner serviceability.

Delivery timelines displayed on the website or communicated through customer support channels are estimates only and shall not be interpreted as guaranteed delivery commitments.

While the Company endeavors to ensure timely delivery, customers acknowledge that delivery schedules may vary depending upon logistical circumstances and operational dependencies outside the Company's direct control.

3. SHIPPING DELAYS & FORCE MAJEURE CONDITIONS

The Company shall not be held responsible for delays in shipping, dispatch, transit, or delivery arising due to circumstances beyond its reasonable control.

Such circumstances may include delays caused by courier or logistics partners, transportation disruptions, weather conditions, natural calamities, strikes, regional restrictions, public holidays, government actions, technical failures, customs-related delays, operational interruptions, force majeure events, or other unforeseen conditions affecting transportation or delivery infrastructure.

Customers acknowledge that estimated delivery timelines may occasionally be impacted due to such external circumstances and agree that the Company shall not be liable for indirect inconvenience, losses, or claims arising solely from such delays.

4. SHIPPING ADDRESS & CUSTOMER RESPONSIBILITY

Customers are solely responsible for ensuring that all shipping and delivery information provided at the time of purchase is complete, accurate, and up to date.

Such information may include recipient name, address details, postal code, landmark information, contact number, and any other details necessary for successful delivery.

The Company shall not be responsible for failed deliveries, delays, additional shipping costs, losses, or order complications arising due to inaccurate, incomplete, incorrect, or outdated information submitted by the customer.

Customers are additionally advised to ensure availability at the delivery location for successful receipt of shipments.

5. PACKAGING & DELIVERY INSPECTION

The Company undertakes commercially reasonable efforts to securely package all products before dispatch in order to maintain product safety and shipment integrity during transit.

Customers are advised to inspect the outer packaging upon delivery and immediately report any visible signs of tampering, damage, leakage, opening, or suspicious package condition to both the delivery personnel and the Company through official communication channels.

The Company may request photographs, videos, or supporting evidence for verification purposes in case any shipping or packaging concerns are reported.

6. NO RETURN & NO REFUND POLICY

All products sold by the Company are governed under a strict No Return and No Refund policy.

Once a product has been successfully delivered, the Company shall not accept product returns or issue refunds under normal circumstances.

By placing an order, customers expressly acknowledge and agree that purchases made through the Company are final, subject only to the limited exchange conditions specifically outlined under this Policy.

Requests relating to change of preference, dislike of design, incorrect selection made by the customer, size expectations, personal dissatisfaction, or similar subjective reasons shall not qualify for return, refund, or cancellation after successful delivery.

7. EXCHANGE ELIGIBILITY

The Company may, at its sole discretion, consider exchange requests only under limited circumstances including:

- delivery of an incorrect product,
- receipt of a damaged product,
- manufacturing defects identified upon delivery,
- or substantial mismatch between the delivered product and the confirmed order details.

Exchange requests shall not automatically guarantee approval and shall remain subject to verification, inspection, and compliance with all conditions specified under this Policy.

The Company reserves the exclusive right to determine exchange eligibility after reviewing the nature of the claim, supporting evidence, operational records, and product condition.

8. EXCHANGE REQUEST PROCEDURE

Customers seeking exchange-related assistance must notify the Company within 24 hours from the time of delivery.

All exchange requests must be submitted through the Company's official support email at:

support@samaywatch.com

Exchange-related communication should include relevant order details, a clear description of the issue, photographs, videos, packaging evidence, and any additional information reasonably requested by the Company for verification purposes.

The Company may additionally request unboxing videos, packaging inspection evidence, courier labels, or product condition documentation wherever considered reasonably necessary for claim verification and fraud prevention purposes.

Failure to report issues within the prescribed 24-hour reporting period may result in rejection of the exchange request.

9. CONDITIONS FOR EXCHANGE APPROVAL

Exchange requests shall only be considered where the product remains unused, unaltered, untampered, and maintained in its original condition.

Customers must ensure that original packaging, tags, accessories, warranty cards, manuals, invoices, inserts, and all related materials remain intact and available for verification purposes.

The final packaging box must not show signs of tampering, replacement, misuse, or unauthorized opening beyond reasonable inspection.

Products displaying signs of usage, physical damage, mishandling, modification, improper storage, scratches, missing accessories, packaging alteration, or unauthorized repair attempts may not qualify for exchange consideration.

The Company reserves the right to inspect returned products before making any exchange-related decision.

10. RIGHT TO REJECT EXCHANGE REQUESTS

The Company reserves the absolute right to reject any exchange request at its sole discretion in circumstances including but not limited to:

- delayed reporting beyond the prescribed timeline,
- insufficient evidence,
- absence of original packaging,
- signs of wear or usage,
- tampered packaging,
- physical damage caused after delivery,
- unverifiable claims,
- or suspected fraudulent activity.

The Company's decision regarding exchange approval, rejection, eligibility assessment, or claim verification shall be final and binding to the maximum extent permitted under applicable law.

11. BRAND WARRANTY

Products sold by the Company may include applicable manufacturer warranty coverage wherever provided by the respective brand.

Warranty duration, warranty scope, service procedures, exclusions, limitations, and warranty terms shall vary depending upon the respective brand, product model, and manufacturer policies.

All warranty-related repairs, servicing, approvals, replacements, and warranty claims shall be governed solely by the terms, conditions, procedures, and decisions of the respective brand or authorized service provider.

The Company shall not be independently liable for warranty claim approvals or rejections, repair timelines, service center decisions, manufacturer delays, or brand-level warranty limitations.

Customers are advised to carefully preserve original invoices, warranty cards, tags, packaging materials, and related documentation for future warranty-related purposes and manufacturer servicing requirements.

12. PRODUCT APPEARANCE & REPRESENTATION

The Company undertakes commercially reasonable efforts to ensure that all product descriptions, specifications, images, colors, dimensions, pricing, and related information displayed on the website are accurate and updated.

However, minor variations may occur due to photography lighting, screen display settings, manufacturer packaging updates, production batch variations, or brand-level revisions.

Additionally, despite reasonable operational efforts, occasional human errors, typographical mistakes, pricing inaccuracies, specification discrepancies, image mismatches, or technical inaccuracies may occur on the website or associated platforms.

The Company reserves the right to correct such inaccuracies, update information, revise pricing, modify specifications, cancel affected orders, or contact customers for clarification prior to dispatch wherever reasonably necessary.

Minor variations, temporary inaccuracies, or display differences shall not automatically qualify as defects, misrepresentation, or valid grounds for dispute.

13. LIMITATION OF LIABILITY

While the Company undertakes commercially reasonable efforts to maintain efficient shipping operations, accurate product representation, secure packaging, and customer service standards, the Company shall not be liable for indirect losses, consequential damages, shipping delays, operational interruptions, manufacturer-level changes, courier-related issues, technical inaccuracies, or third-party service failures beyond the Company's reasonable control.

To the fullest extent permitted under applicable law, the Company's total liability arising from any transaction, shipment, exchange request, or warranty-related matter shall remain limited to the purchase value of the respective product purchased from the Company.

14. POLICY MODIFICATIONS

The Company reserves the right to revise, update, modify, replace, or discontinue this Policy at any time without prior notice.

Any revised version of this Policy shall become effective immediately upon publication on the website unless otherwise specified.

Customers are encouraged to periodically review this Policy to remain informed regarding current shipping practices, exchange conditions, warranty procedures, and operational terms.

Continued use of the website or purchase of products following any modification to this Policy constitutes acceptance of the revised terms.
